https://www.ecrrn.com/ECRRN//GLOBSEC2019/

GLOBSEC
IDEAS SHAPING THE WORLD

The Largest Side Event & The First-Ever/Inaugural Real-World Crisis Simulation Exercise at the GLOBSEC 2019 Bratislava Forum

Organised by the Transatlantic Steering Cmte.

Co-Chair: Keerthika M. Subramanian, Esq.
Co-Chair: Nadja EL Fertasi
Kristen M. Laughlin
Dr. David A. Bray, PhD

Disruptive Dilemmas: Cyber Crisis Simulation Exercise

June 6, 2019 from 9 A.M. – 10:30 A.M.
Grand Hotel River Park, Bratislava, Slovakia

Key Highlights

- Fireside Chat Featuring Dr. Benedetta Berti, Head, Policy Planning, Office of the Secretary General, NATO
- Four Real-World, Interactive Crisis Simulation Exercises Developed in Consultation with Leading U.S. and E.U. Experts in Cybersecurity and Emotional Intelligence
- Participants in the Side Event will include diplomats, government policymakers, private sector leaders, think tank representatives and civil society leaders

Real-World Crisis Simulation Exercise Themes

- Disruption by Sea: Mitigating the Risks Associated with the Use of Cyber and AI in Managing the Refugee Crisis
- Conquering Domestic and International Cybersecurity Challenges Presented by Foreign Investments in SMEs and Start-ups
- Addressing and Augmenting Brain Drain and other Cyber Workforce Development Challenges
- Leveraging the Capabilities of Cyber and AI in the Battle against Disinformation and Foreign Election Interference

GLOBSEC 2019 Bratislava Forum, in partnership with:

OPPENHUIZEN
WORLDWIDE FINANCIAL COUNSEL

ECRRN
European Cyber Resilience Research Network

GLOBAL CYBER ALLIANCE

NATO OTAN SINCE 1949

See back side for the full programme schedule

Programme

09:00 – 09:10 a.m.	Welcome/Opening Remarks
	Nadja El Fertasi, CEO/Founder of Nadja El Fertasi, EQ (Emotional Intelligence) Coaching & Consulting, Former Senior Executive Coordinator, NATO, Brussels, Belgium
	James Oppenhuizen, Esq., Member at Oppenhuizen Law Firm, PLC, Michigan, U.S.A.
09:10 – 09:25 a.m.	Fireside Chat: Navigating a New Wave of Digital Disruptions in Countering Terrorism: Non-state Actors and Emerging Technologies
	Moderator: Keerthika M. Subramanian, Esq., Corporate Attorney at Mintz Levin, Boston, MA, U.S.A.
	Keynote Speaker: Dr. Benedetta Berti, Head, Policy Planning, Office of the Secretary General, NATO, Brussels, Belgium
09:25 – 10:25 a.m.	Crisis Simulation Exercise (30 Minutes for Simulation Exercises; 30 Minutes for Presentation of Solutions)
	Break-Out Group 1
	Disruption by Sea: Mitigating the Risks Associated with the Use of Cyber and AI to Manage the Refugee Crisis
	Facilitator: James Oppenhuizen, Esq., Member at Oppenhuizen Law Firm, PLC, Michigan, U.S.A.
	Partner Organization: NATO, Brussels, Belgium
	Break-Out Group 2
	Conquering Cybersecurity Challenges Presented by Foreign Investments in SMEs and Start-ups
	Facilitator: Kristen M. Laughlin, Founder and CEO, Avion Consulting Group, Cleveland, OH, U.S.A.
	Partner Organization: Global Cyber Alliance, New York City, United States and Brussels, Belgium
	Break-Out Group 3
	Addressing and Augmenting Brain Drain and other Cyber Workforce Development Challenges
	Facilitator: Keerthika M. Subramanian, Esq., Corporate Attorney at Mintz Levin, Boston, MA, U.S.A.
	Partner Organization: European Cyber Resilience Research Network, Amsterdam, The Netherlands
	Break-Out Group 4
	Leveraging the Capabilities of Cyber in the Battle Against Disinformation and Foreign Election Interference
	Facilitator: Nadja El Fertasi, CEO/Founder of Nadja El Fertasi, EQ (Emotional Intelligence) Coaching & Consulting, Former Senior Executive Coordinator, NATO, Brussels, Belgium
	Partner Organization: GLOBSEC, Bratislava, Slovakia
10:25 – 10:30 a.m.	Closing Remarks
	James Oppenhuizen, Esq., Member at Oppenhuizen Law Firm, PLC, Michigan, U.S.A.
	Kristen M. Laughlin, Founder and CEO, Avion Consulting Group, Cleveland, OH, U.S.A.